Community Educator, Latino Outreach

Mental Health America

Position Summary

The Community Educator, Latino Outreach facilitates the delivery, development, and expansion of culturally responsive mental health education and outreach efforts for English- and Spanish-speaking communities. This role focuses on trauma-informed content, community-based learning, and equitable language access. The position also includes curriculum development, workshop facilitation, and strategic community partnerships, especially within Spanish-speaking communities to increase the reach, consistency, and impact of MHA's education and advocacy work.

Requirements

Education & Training

- Deliver multiple trainings each week, including certification programs and agency-specific content, in English and Spanish.
- Collaborate on the design and delivery of both existing and new workshops.
- Expand culturally responsive training for service providers, businesses, and Latino-focused groups.
- Co-facilitate trainings as needed, based on certification and program requirements.

Curriculum & Program Development

- Development of new training content and curriculum aligned with MHA's trauma-informed framework and Spanish-speaking audience needs.
- Collaborate to assess training gaps and participant feedback for new workshop offerings.
- Contribute to long-term planning for expanding cultural training and engagement.

Community Outreach & Inclusion

- Serve as a bilingual point of contact for Spanish-speaking community members, partners, and organizations.
- Assist with development of Spanish-language marketing and outreach materials.
- Establish and strengthen partnerships with Latino-serving agencies, such as the Latino Chamber of Commerce, schools, and youth programs.

Administration & Reporting

- Manage light administrative tasks, including workshop setup, documentation, and communication with partners.
- Provide data for quarterly and year-end reports as needed.

Minimum Qualifications

Education:

- Bachelor's degree in Public Health, Education, Social Work, Psychology, or a related field preferred.

Experience:

- At least 3 years of facilitation or education delivery experience.
 - Fluency in both Spanish and English (spoken and written) required.
 - Experience designing and delivering culturally relevant content to diverse audiences.
 - Familiarity with trauma-informed care and Latino mental health priorities.
 - Proficient in Microsoft Office, Canva, and virtual training tools.

Family Partner (Bilingual Spanish)

Mental Health America

Position Summary

The Family Partner is a parent or caregiver who has raised or is currently raising a child or youth with mental, emotional, or behavioral health challenges. This individual uses their lived experience to support other families by providing peer mentoring, education, system navigation, and advocacy. The Family Partner helps caregivers access treatment and services, build resiliency, and become empowered advocates for their children.

Working from a trauma-informed, family-driven, and strengths-based approach, the Family Partner builds authentic relationships with families while helping them navigate child-serving systems such as education, behavioral health, social services, juvenile justice, and more. This position also involves participating in community outreach, education, and advocacy efforts led by MHA's ParentVOICE program. This position will be based in our Mecklenburg Office three days a week and in our Cabarrus Office two days a week.

Requirements

Family Engagement & Support

- Provide one-on-one peer support and coaching to parents and caregivers.
- Share personal experiences in a way that affirms families and inspires hope.
- Educate families about navigating child-serving systems and available resources.
- Connect caregivers to informal and community supports to reduce stress.
- Promote family advocacy through modeling and mentoring.
- Maintain flexible scheduling, including availability for some evenings/weekends.
- Offer emotional, strengths-based, and empowerment-focused support.

Systems Navigation & Advocacy

- Accompany families to school meetings, court, or service appointments when needed.
- Coach caregivers on articulating needs and advocating for their child.
- Assist families in accessing services across systems including health, housing, and education.
- Provide referrals to appropriate agencies and resources.

Education & Outreach

- Co-lead monthly "Real Talk, Real Support" workshops.
- Deliver parenting education using the Triple P (Positive Parenting Program) model (Levels 3 – children and teens).
- Present on behalf of MHA/ParentVOICE at community meetings, civic groups, and outreach events.
- Help plan and implement trainings, support groups, and family leadership development opportunities.
- Identify and encourage other parents to participate in the Family Partner Training Institute (FPTI).

Administrative & Documentation

- Accurately document all family interactions, phone calls, and referrals in organization's systems.
- Maintain records of time, mileage, and reimbursement receipts.
- Complete regular assessments and quarterly reporting for program partners.
- Submit required Triple P documentation to Mecklenburg County in a timely manner.
